WHEREAS an investigation under the above case reference has established, through on-chain forensic traversal, that funds originating from the suspect address named above were routed across 1 intermediary hop(s) and were ultimately deposited into a custodial wallet under the control of your organisation;

AND WHEREAS the said deposit address is reasonably believed to be mapped to an internal user account maintained by you, the records of which are necessary and material to the investigation;

NOW THEREFORE, in exercise of the powers conferred under Section 94 of the Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023, you are hereby DIRECTED to comply with the following, forthwith and in any event within seventy-two (72) hours of receipt of this order:

1. Immediately freeze and restrict all outflow from the internal user account / UID corresponding to deposit address TQrY8tryqsYVnkzKTLnZQpvbLkyPPeLqXQ, including withdrawals, internal transfers, and conversions, and preserve the account in its present state.
2. Furnish complete KYC documentation for the said account holder, comprising government-issued photo identification, full legal name, registered email address, and registered mobile number, together with the date and method of onboarding.
3. Provide login IP logs with timestamps and device fingerprints, all withdrawal destination addresses, and the complete account ledger of deposits, trades, and withdrawals for the subject account.

The material sought shall be produced in a machine-readable format (CSV or JSON) accompanied by a certificate under Section 63 of the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam, 2023, attesting to the authenticity and integrity of the electronic record.

Non-compliance with this order attracts the consequences prescribed under Section 94(3) BNSS read with the applicable provisions of the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, 2023. This order shall not be disclosed to the account holder, as such disclosure would prejudice the ongoing investigation.
